

In our story about the Switch Tad is stuck as Bob Snarby. If you had the chance to write a letter to Lord and Lady Spencer what would tad tell them? Write his letter explaining his problem.

Maple At Home

Tricky words:

Restrain, blitz,
bombard, declaration.

Try and find out what they mean.

Lines of symmetry.

Show me shapes which have:

2 lines of symmetry.

4 lines of symmetry

More than 4 lines of symmetry.

Are there any shapes that have 0 lines of symmetry.

Find a net pattern for this 3D shape:

CUBE. Is there more than 1 pattern? How many can you find?

Literacy:

Our topic is World War 2. Thank you for all your fabulous homework over Christmas. Now what information can find out about this man: Neville Chamberlain? Why was he important? Find a picture of him. Do you think he was very popular?

Please learn these topic words and find a way to spell for life:

London, factory, industry, aeroplane, spitfire, airfield, launch, siren, blitz, air-raid.

These connectives will be invaluable when writing reports:

Moreover, in addition. Show me you can use them. Perhaps you could tie this in with your work on Neville Chamberlain.

MrBaker@bridlewood.swindon.sch.uk.