Dear Mr Faulty,

I am writing to you to complain about the disgusting service we received at your hotel restaurant on Sunday 16th January 2011.

Firstly my family and I were enjoying our meal when we were rudely interrupted by you. We were told to move to another table, which later had its flowers pinched. I was then told to move rather abruptly.

Having been moved our plates were placed on another table the man there must have been disgusted. Then a "Lord Melbery," who did not look like any Lord, came in. I have a belief that you were just trying to impress this "Lord."

In conclusion we are very annoyed at this disgusting treatment and will do our best to avoid your hotel if this is the rank of your services.

Yours Sincerely
Rosey Smith
