

London to Brighton

In just 4 minutes

Stopping at London were ready to go

The electric buzz at the speed of light

We are passing a baby, on a trike

We are whizzing past the countryside

Faster and faster of we go

The train hooting hello

In the back the passengers shout faster, faster, faster

We speed up, passengers scream

Now you see me now you don't

Hello tree, hello station

Were at Brighton,

yes we are

Passenger shouting fast!
